

develop a registration form for php and do necessary validation(name, email,dob,mob) develop a php program to implement database connectivity using php and my sql develop a program to accept book information (accession no ,title ,authors, edition and publisher) from a web page and store the information in a database and perform following operations

- a insert the records
- b update the records
- c delete the records
- d search for a book for the title specified by the user
- e display the search results with proper headings

using php and my sql develop a user profile to accept name profile picture address and phone number from a web page and store the information in the database and display it in the neat format.